BOTTOM OF SEA RISING

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—UP—Reports from the cruiser Cleveland of shoal water off the west coast of Nicaragua, which may indicate the bottom of the Pacific ocean is rising sufficiently to endanger navigation, will be thoroughly investigated by the navy department, Capt. C. S. Kempf, hydrographer, told the United Press today.

Kempf already has broadcast a world wide warning to ships to steer clear of the area until the Cleveland's reports can be investigated and has ordered a more complete report by air mail from the Pacific coast.

The only word received by the navy so far is a brief radio dispatch from the ship reporting 4 1-2 fathoms of water where navigation charts show 37, and 8 1-2 fathoms where the charts indicate a depth of 268 fathoms.

The aviators are Pilot; Kaeser, Mechanic; Schopp and Navigator Lusher.

PASSENGER HITS OPEN SWITCH

WATKINSON, Ill., Aug. 9.—UP—Three persons were killed, many were injured, three of them seriously and several were reported missing tonight when a fast passenger train between Milwaukee and Chicago on the C. M. & St. P. and P. railroad went through an open switch near Wadsworth, Ill., and crashed into a freight train on the siding.

The locomotive of the passenger train was demolished and tender and baggage coach were badly damaged while four cars of the freight train were wrecked.

Probe Opened
Officials of the railroad tonight began an investigation to determine how the switch from the main track into the siding was left open.

Members of the freight train crew were sitting on the grass away from the right of way when the passenger train swept through the switch and crashed into the freight train. Several persons received slight injuries.

Body Not Found

The body of the engineer had not been removed from the wreck age an hour after the accident. The locomotive was a twisted mass and wreckers said it was impossible that he could have escaped death. Crews of both trains and volunteer workers were digging in wreckage which was strewn for several hundred feet along both sides of the right of way. It was feared that other bodies would be found.

Railroad officials announced that no traffic could pass through this section of the road tonight and orders were sent for additional workers in order to clear the tracks that trains might be routed through here on schedule Saturday.

PANTAGES DETAINED ON PRETTY DANCER'S CHARGE

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 9.—UP—Alexander Pantages, prominent Pacific coast vaudeville magnate, was detained for juvenile authorities tonight after a pretty girl dancer screamed from his office that he had attacked her.

Pantages made emphatic denial and said that the girl, Eunice Pringle, 17, had torn her clothes and thrown herself to the floor at his feet after he had refused her work.

Dr. W. C. Beatty, woman juvenile physician, was to make an examination of the girl Saturday. She said the girl had what appeared to be finger bruises on her right arm.

Versions of the story told by Pantages and by Mrs. Pringle both were supported by witnesses, police said. The girl said

POLAND IN THREAT ON LITHUANIA

BERLIN, Aug. 8.—UP—Diplomatic circles were disturbed tonight by reports from Warsaw and Vilna alleging that Polish military quarters intend to exploit the present tense situation between Soviet Russia and China.

The reports asserted that the military quarters intend to take advantage of Russia's preoccupation with the Manchurian situation to engineer a coupe d'etat at Kovno and establish a Polish government in the Lithuanian capital.

Considerable military activity was reported on the Polish-Lithuanian frontier but Warsaw has vigorously denied in recent weeks any move to influence or injure the Lithuanian government.

Democratic Manager and Publicity Chief Surprised by Party Opposition to Success of Their Attacks on Tariff Bill

WASHINGTON, D. C.
Jouett Shouse and Charles Michelson have had such success in their Democratic National Committee publicity drive against the pending tariff bill the inevitable fault-finding now is coming to the surface. It is that they have been too successful.

When Michelson, former chief of The World's Washington Bureau, obtained and distributed a statement by Senator William E. Borah, outstanding Republican in the Senate, assailing the tariff, there were suggestions that the efficacy of the Democratic National organization had become so well established that Herbert Hoover might wish to engage its facilities to get his ideas across to the public.

The surprise of Messrs. Shouse and Michelson will be imagined when they began to be shot in the back by dum-dum bullets from the Democratic ranks.

"You have spoiled everything," one eminent Democrat complained. "If you don't stop this bombardment, you are going to make the Senate write a better bill than that which passed the House." You are setting Republican Senators right out of their skins. You are making the White House tremble. Out it cut Co. easy, bro. Hooty.

Neither Shouse nor Michelson is what you would call coy but there is a certain naivete about both of them and they can't understand why they should be hammered for succeeding.

The Democratic political wise-guys were quick to set them straight.
The big idea is to let the Republicans write a tariff bill which would raise the "tariff of abominations" of sixty years ago look like a free-trade bill.

The Democrats in the Senate would induce in some pretty political sneezes but never get to the "most recently cut hammer-and-tongs."
The bill would pass.

Hoover would have to sign it or veto it and "be damned if he did and damned if he didn't."
Everything would be lovely for the Democrats.

"Why spoil the party?"
The Democratic goss would hang high unless the public should be soured sufficiently to cause the Republicans to tread lightly. To reform the bill or force the C. O. P. to back down would be bad politics from a Democratic standpoint. It would rob the Democrats of a lot of thunder.

To all such casuistry, Jouett Shouse has made but one answer.
To pretend to oppose the tariff bill in all its infamies, but hope secretly for its passage would lower the Democratic Party to the level of the Republicans and that is not what he gave us a representative law practice in Kalsue City to do.

To believe that the bill imposed extraneous levies on the pocket-books of millions of Americans and contrive secretly to give nothing save its service to its direct would be equivalent to sneering by while a foreigner struck and robbed a woman and then make speeches denouncing the White House Police.

Irreproachable of what the time-servers in politics feel about it. Shouse understood the fight against the Hawley bill as a moral responsibility to reform opposition party and he is determined to pursue it to course through to the end.

His idea is to have the Democratic National Committee perform what he considers to be a public service. He realizes as well as any of those who wish to live in the true of politics that if the publicity campaign of the Democratic organization should bring that revision downward of the Tariff Bill as it passed the House, the Republicans would claim all the credit for President Hoover and the White House publicity machine probably would succeed in establishing that as a fact in the popular mind along about 1930 or

The Farmer's Advice

By Alfalfa Smith

MUCH MAKES MORE!
I have tried to tell you this many times, but perhaps it has not been fixed in your heads, so I am repeating it!

It applies particularly to money, and you know it applies to learning.
Money comes from doing EVERY-THING you can do and not merely the few things you are doing now.
If you will keep busy you will find that much work means more work, and I assure you that you will be happier than you are today if you will do everything you know you can do.

In case you do not know what there is to do that you are not doing now, why not inquire what you LIKE TO DO?

Remember—MUCH MAKES MORE!

The Diet in Hot Weather

INDISCRETIONS in eating are the cause of many hot weather troubles. In summer it is quite necessary to be extremely cautious in eating and not add to the strain the warm weather puts on people.

Cold foods should constitute a large portion of the summer diet, but eating too much chilled food is dangerous. The wise housewife will always include one hot food at each meal. This may be soup—clam broth or bouillon will do—a hot vegetable, or the beverage may be hot tea, coffee or cocoa.

Overindulgence in food or drink is another cause of serious trouble. It is important at all times to be careful of your diet, but it is particularly so during the warm weather.

Do not eat large meals. Drink plenty of water; even a dozen glasses a day is not too much on a hot day. Eat less meat and more salads and fruits.
Cut down on rich desserts and all fatty foods. In short, eat simple foods in moderation. Following are a few good summer foods: Salads—and for these you can use vegetables, fruits, meat, lobster, shrimp or crabmeat—cold meat, stuffed eggs, meat loaf, chicken mousse, potato chips, relishes, cheese (especially cottage cheese), milk, apples, gelatine and fruit desserts, hot vegetables, fruits and melons.

Foods That Go Together

Chicken hash, French fried potatoes, corn on the cob, crab salad, biscuits and sugared currants and raspberries.

Boiled beef tongue, rice, potatoes, cauliflower, baked eggplant, fruit salad and ice cream.

Fried beef, hashed browned potatoes, vegetable salad, muffins and coconut bread pudding.

Try These

When mths get into the piano spray inside of instrument with the following mixture: Seven parts benzine to one part turpentine, and add two drops of oil of lavender to each ounce.

To keep rugs from slipping cut old rubbers into triangular pieces to fit the corners of the rug and sew or glue these firmly in place.

When the cane chair seats sag sponge both sides of cane with hot soapsuds, to which a handful of salt has been added; rinse in clean water and dry in sun before putting on a cloth and iron with a hot iron.

If white shoes become too soiled to be cleaned you can make them a nice brown by rubbing them with a mixture of two tablespoonsful of olive oil and twenty drops saffron. It may be necessary to make two applications.

Nail a large scrubbing brush upside down to the rear porch steps and train the children to wipe their shoes on this before entering the house. It will save much labor.

The World's Window

Magician

Joseph Weissenberg, the Berliner whose recent "prophecy" that Britain would disappear into the sea was falsified by the absence of any unusual natural phenomena in the United Kingdom on the fatal day, is now in danger of coming into collision with the law. The criminal police of Berlin have confiscated the body of a drugist named Wernicke, who died from blood poisoning caused by a boil on the neck. Wernicke, who was a fanatical adherent of Weissenberg, refused any other treatment than that which the "prophet" should prescribe. The prescription was the application of soft cheese to the wound, together with a diet of buttermilk. The affair is serving to direct public attention to Weissenberg and his sect. What is causing alarm is the growing number of adherents to a sect the practices and pretensions of which are the outcome of a thoroughly unhealthy state of mind. Weissenberg claims to be able to conjure up spirits, to heal the sick by the laying on of hands, and to work all manner of miracles.
Magic is his method, and his appeal is through the medium of the most primitive forms of suggestion.

In Weissenberg's own words, the White Mountain, of which the circulation is given as 17,000 and in which the number of adherents is 17,000, titles to some financial support, interviews are published with the ghost of Bismarck and the Archangel Gabriel.

Passion Players

In preparation for the 1930 Passion play all the men in Oberammergau have been forbidden to shave their faces or trim their beards until the cast of the performers has been chosen.
Until the committee of twenty-two finally assign the roles, Oberammergau will be living in a state of suspense. Who will be chosen to portray Christ is the most important question.
For three decades Anton Lang has performed the role, but present indications are that his distant cousin, Alois Lang, will be chosen for next year. Alois represents the group who believe that Christ should be portrayed as a sterner and more heroic person than he appeared in the interpretation made famous by Anton Lang. Anton is still a candidate with a large following, but his advanced age is against him. There is also keen competition for the role of Judas which, after Christ, is considered the best in the play. Johann Zwink, undoubtedly a great actor in that role, has been forced to resign on account of age. Guido Mayr, who played the role in 1922, may be chosen, but his relative, Joseph Mayr, seems to have a good chance, as his features apparently better fit the part. Andreas Lang, famous in the characterization of the Apostle Peter, is again a candidate. The ballot of the committee will be conducted in secret. According to the rules, no person may refuse a role accorded to him, whatever his station in life and however small the role may be.

Fourteenth of July

Parisians commemorated the storming of the Bastille in the traditional manner on July 14 and the two following days; that is to say they danced in the streets, lit down. Every corner saloon had hired an orchestra, often no bigger than a corps de ballet, and put its chairs and tables out on the sidewalks and on the pavement. The streets were brightly lit all night, as commanded by the law, and the men of 1789, and the "citizens" were, as of old, asked "to abandon themselves to rejoicing over the fall of the last work of feudalism." Of late years the Parisians have discovered a new diversion on the three annual festivities. They go over to Montpa-nasse to look on while Uncle Sam's boys and girls attempt to show them what is meant by the phrase "putting the town red." Never was such hilarity, such chaotic gaiety seen in the Latin Quarter. The American soldiers did not refuse even to let the dance interfere with them.
Dozens of them fell asleep, exhausted, under the chestnut trees which line the Boulevard Montpa-nasse and Raspail. But that did not prevent them from being furiously at it again by nightfall. Cocktails seem to have a powerfully reviving effect.

Heavy Tweeds Not Becoming To the Short, Slender Woman

By Marguerite Barnes

HEAVY tweeds will be worn this fall, but the short, dainty woman must not succumb to the lure of this interesting fabric. It does not drape as gracefully as a softer, more closely woven material and will make her appear somewhat bulky and heavy.
A fine, lightweight fabric is much more suitable for the slender woman and will enable her to achieve the effect of long, softly curving lines and a slender silhouette which she needs as much as the large type.

The judge who is qualified to hear such persons should communicate with the defendant's family at once, instead of dismissing the matter with a fine or a suspended sentence. Parents need not fear for the future of their children if they are built up to understand the difference between right and wrong.

The Law of Vagrancy

By Dorothy Frooks
(Lawyer and Author of "Love's Law")

THREE young boys stood before the Court. They were not yet seventeen years of age. They were charged with vagrancy. The world in itself implies wandering about without a settled home. A tramp is a vagrant.
In this day and age when restlessness seems to be paramount it is a task for parents to keep boys close to the hearth. The wanderlust over-powers boys of this impressionable age. It is during that period that their contacts will bring them back home as better or worse. This applies to all boys, and girls are affected by the times.

Girls are affected by the times.

It is known that many of the greatest men of to-day took it upon themselves to leave home while in the age of adolescence. The fact that they stepped away from home and down ties and exerted their energy on something of their own choosing made them important factors in the affairs of the world. On the other hand, some of those people who have torn themselves away from the home ties, instead of bettering themselves and their conditions, have gone down and down until they have become familiar figures as defendants in the courts of law. The advice to be given parents, and to be followed thereafter by the parents, is quite important.

Fundamentally, the character is moulded in childhood and at home. If parents would have the necessary knowledge to talk to children about the affairs of the world there would be less vagrancy. Impress the boy or girl from the first he or she is able to think, with the ideals of honesty and trustfulness is very important. With such a foundation, the realization of a wanderlust would be beneficial. After all, the boy or girl who takes it upon him or herself to leave home can not be curbed in that particular tendency.

Animal energy, love of adventure, the desire to see the world, really can not be curbed. It is commendable. Every normal and healthy person progresses under such conditions. The important part is the first step taken by the Court should the boy or girl come before it on a charge of vagrancy. If Judges would only look into the child's nature and disposition they would realize that the first reprimand given to vagrants is most important.
The first appearance in court for a man charged with vagrancy is disgraceful. The man is usually ignorant of the law and the court proceedings. He is usually a poor creature, with no family, no friends, no home, and no money. He is usually a vagrant, and he is usually a criminal.

MRS. EDWARD S. TWING WEARS A GAY HEAD KERCHEF WITH HER SPORTS ENSEMBLE

SLEEVELESS SLIP-ON BLOUSE WITH INVERTED BOX-
PLEATED SKIRT

By HELEN WORDEN

(New York World) 1929

Gay stripes band the sleeveless slip-on blouse worn by Mrs. Edmund S. Twining at Southampton. Like the edge of the jumper, the armholes and V-shaped neck are bordered in the same bright colors. With the blouse Mrs. Twining wears an inverted box-pleated skirt. The pleats are stitched to the hips and allow to flare in sunburst fashion to the hemline.

The question of pleats versus circular flares for skirts this fall is a matter of deep conjecture on the part of the designers. It is quite possible that the plain skirts with the flaring hemline will take the place of the familiar pleated model.

Mrs. Twining has chosen well the accompanying accessories to her ensemble. Of outstanding importance are the 'isle hose which are worn with tweed country togs. Of equal importance is her gayly patterned little informal beach bag that corresponds appropriately with the 'isle stockings. There is much in wearing the right clothes at the right time. A bright head kerchief tops off the attractive ensemble.

Mrs. Edmund Twining is one of the popular members of the younger set to express much interest in the Hampton Players. Henry Colman Potter is the director of the players and Frank Poole Bevan designer of the settings.

"A nice big slice of throat!" completed Kitty.

"Shut up! For two cents!" But what Jerry would have done for two cents was not to be revealed, for at that moment in dashed the detective, puffing and blowing, mopping his brilliant red face with a grimy handkerchief.

"Hey, Jerry, the box-office's been robbed!" he gulped.

"What! Robbed?" Jerry sat down abruptly on a trunk and stared at Joe. "Why, what—how—" he shook his head and for once words failed him.

Like fire the news spread across the stage. Actors and show girls poured out of dressing rooms, gathering around the manager; stage hands stopped work. Everyone tried to talk at once.

"Who did it . . . how much did they take . . . what on earth will we do . . . where are the police . . . did anyone send for the police . . . did you catch the thief yet . . . how can we get the money back?" Jerry, tell us with the show . . . this is awful . . .

With an effort Jerry roused himself. "Now for the love of Pete, kids, don't worry about the robbery." He tried to calm them. "The show's got to go on. Everything

"What's her name," Joe demanded, assuming his most professional manner.

"Dat ain't got nuttin' to do de case, 'cause de dame f'm G. Gilbolting wild, see. De note 'Pardon de intrusion, De policeman de gent which is your escort to de out in de alley an' get him knocked out."

"Who was he?"

"Larry Maloney, de music business to cab driver, de big o' cheese."

Jerry turned away, smiling just in time to see Jimmy slipping in through the stage door. The boy glanced furtively at him, and then stroled on towards the stage. Jerry frowned. The detective would not get sooner or later and the boy have to confess that he had about holding up the box . . . And certainly the finger of suspicion pointed to Jimmy.

It was motive enough. Jimmy's money was the show's life. He saw no chance of reclaiming themore, he was in love with Kitty, and her father's Wiggs had been sunk along with boy's.

HELENS WIN IN WIGHTMAN PLAY

WEST SIDE TENNIS CLUB, FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Aug. 9.—UP—Red headed Helen Jacobs, husky, hard-hitting California tennis ace, supplied the victory that gave the United States a commanding lead of two matches to one in the opening day's play of the Seventh Annual Wightman Cup series against England before 6000 spectators here today.

After Helen Willis had beaten Mrs. Phoebe Watson in the opening match 6-1, 6-4, Miss Jacobs beat Betty Nuthall, rosy cheeked British beauty and No. 1 player of the invaders, in a dramatic battle, 7-5, 8-6.

England's lone victory came in the final match of the day when Mrs. Watson and Mrs. Peggy Mitchell defeated Miss Willis and Edith Cross, 6-4, 6-1.

May Take Cup

With four matches—three singles and one doubles—scheduled Saturday the United States needs but two victories to win back the Wightman Cup which England captured last year at Wimbledon four matches to three.

On the verge of defeat in each set, Miss Jacobs fought back gallantly to stage off the challenge of the 18-year old British lass in a brilliant battle which at times had the spectators gasping for breath.

Sensational rallies, courageous comebacks and brilliant recoveries featured the duel between Miss Jacobs, No. 2 player of the American team, and Miss Nuthall, No. 1 player of the British forces.

At Disadvantage

The stout-hearted young Berkeley girl had to fight back from a 1-4 disadvantage in the first set before she emerged victorious, 7-5.

Employing a devastating service, Miss Nuthall assumed a 2-1 4-1 lead taking three games at love before Miss Jacobs was able to stop her. Miss Jacobs rallied to win three straight games and even the score 4-all, but she dropped the ninth game, allowing Miss Nuthall to assume the lead 5-4.

Here the California girl set her teeth, tightened her grip on her racquet and went after her opponent hammer and tongs, if such is possible among women tennis players.

Takes Game

Winning the tenth game at love on service, Miss Jacobs swept through the next two games to win the first set.

It was the English girl who was forced to stage a remarkable comeback in the second set. Miss Jacobs started out to make quick work of Betty in the second set and led 5-2, before the British beauty put on an unstoppable rally and won four games in quick succession to assume the lead, 6-5.

Again Miss Jacobs summoned all her fighting spirit and halted Miss Nuthall's progress with a streak of superlative tennis, and winning three games in succession to clinch the set and match.

Helen Wins Easily

It took Miss Willis 40 minutes to dispose of Mrs. Watson and the match was really never close except on two occasions in the second set when the English matron pulled up from 0-2 and 2-4 to twice even the match 2-2, and 4-4. Miss Willis, however, applied the pressure in the last two games and ran the match out.

After getting off to a 2-1 and 4-2 lead in the first set of the doubles, Miss Willis and Miss Edith Cross collapsed and lost four games in a row in the first set and the first three games of the second set before they were able to take another game. The British routed the American pair in the second set, losing only one game which was deuced four times.

With Miss Willis and Miss Jacobs favorites to win their singles matches Saturday, the Wightman Cup should pass back into the possession of the United States.

CHICAGO CUBS INCREASE LEAD

By UNITED PRESS

Guy Bush, leading pitcher in the National league, led the Chicago Cubs to a 12 to 6 victory over Philadelphia Friday. Bush wasn't overly effective against the hard hitting Phils but his mates pounded four pitchers for 13 hits and gave him a safe lead. The victory left Chicago six games and a half ahead of the field.

The Pittsburgh Pirates came from behind to win their third in a row, 7 to 6. The St. Louis Cardinals were the victims, falling in defeat after the Pirates had wiped out a 4 to 0 lead they amassed in the second inning. French started the game for Pittsburgh but Swentonic relieved him in the third and received credit for the victory.

Fred Fitzsimmons exercised his usual charm over the Cincinnati Reds and the New York Giants won, 7 to 1. Freddie allowed the Reds only four hits. May and Kolp were reached for 15 safeties by New York batters.

The St. Louis Browns regained undisputed possession of third place by defeating the Chicago White Sox, 9 to 6, in the only game of the day in the American league. Ted Lyons started for Chicago but was knocked out in the fourth inning.

church in Teddington must get rid of that "horrid carpet which now disfigures the chancel" and replace it with a bright covering. The carpet which Albert John Bovay detested so heartily once belonged to the Shah of Persia and is worth more than £1000. Bovay, who died in February, left a will stating the carpet must be taken up and a brighter one substituted if the church wished to secure a bequest of £2000. The carpet is to go, and a red one is to take its place.

TALKING to a roomful of high school girls on personal hygiene, an experienced district nurse said: "One of the basic rules of health for girls is to keep the system functioning naturally at all times. Normal exercise and diet habits should be encouraged. But when necessary there's no harm in taking nujol, since it works mechanically and can't disturb the normal functions of any organ of the body. Particularly with girls, these are times when nujol should always be taken. Take a spoonful every night for a few days. It's a thoroughly safe and harmless method. It won't cause distress or gas pains or griping."

Nujol is different from any other substance. It contains no drugs or medicine. It can be taken safely no matter how you are feeling because it is so pure and harmless, and works so easily. Every woman should keep a bottle on hand. Every druggist has this remarkable substance. Get the genuine.

LY COMPOUNDED RELIEVE MANY AILMENTS AT ONCE.
Richmond, Cal. June 1, 1929.
For years I had terrible pains in my right side. I also had liver and gall bladder trouble, which caused the pain to run clear around my back. All the healers whom I consulted said that I could not be helped unless an operation was performed. Being aware that many of my friends had been greatly benefited by the Pong Wan herbs, I began to take them. I continued to take them for seven weeks, at the end of which time I felt that my relief was complete. Now I have the added satisfaction of knowing that it is also permanent. For a year has elapsed and I am still free from pain and feel splendid.

TORCH MURDER BODY FOUND

NEWARK, N. J., Aug. 9.—UP—The body of a man or woman, burned to a crisp, was found in the rear seat of an expensive automobile at the city dump tonight—the second frightful torch murder victim in recent months.

The place where the body was found is only 300 feet from the new express highway which leads past the Metropolitan airport through the dumps at Elizabeth.

It was impossible without expert examination to tell the sex of the body. The clothes were burned completely. The empty five gallon gasoline cans were found in the badly burned car. One of the cans was torn open, as if it had exploded. Police said there was no question, however, that it was a case of murder.

There were no license plates on the car. The engine number had, apparently been obliterated and police said it would be difficult if not impossible to make it out.

Oversight Causes Arrest Of Man

MARTINEZ, Aug. 9.—Although Darrel Martinevich and Margaret Vierra, of El Cerrito obtained a marriage license in San Jose, they apparently neglected to have a ceremony performed before they set up house-keeping, according to word received at the sheriff's office here today.

Martinevich is being held by the San Jose police on a statutory charge.

Sisters In Row Over Furniture Valued At $2000

Sister will face sister in the court of Justice of the Peace Arthur A. Strom Monday afternoon at two o'clock when an effort will be made to determine the ownership of $2,000 worth of furniture.

Mrs. Georgia Green of Los Angeles and Mrs. Clarence Morgan of Richmond each claim the property. Mrs. Green charges that her sister moved the furniture from Oakland to Richmond. Now, Mrs. Green declares, she needs the furniture and wants it brought back to her. But Mrs. Morgan, it is alleged, refused to give up the property.

Mrs. Morgan admitted to the court that the furniture is owned by her sister but that she had an agreement giving her the furniture. The case was continued until Monday when Mrs. Morgan promises she will bring in the signed agreement which Mrs. Green declares does not exist.

variously identified as Hale or Weise with the cry "Oh darling."

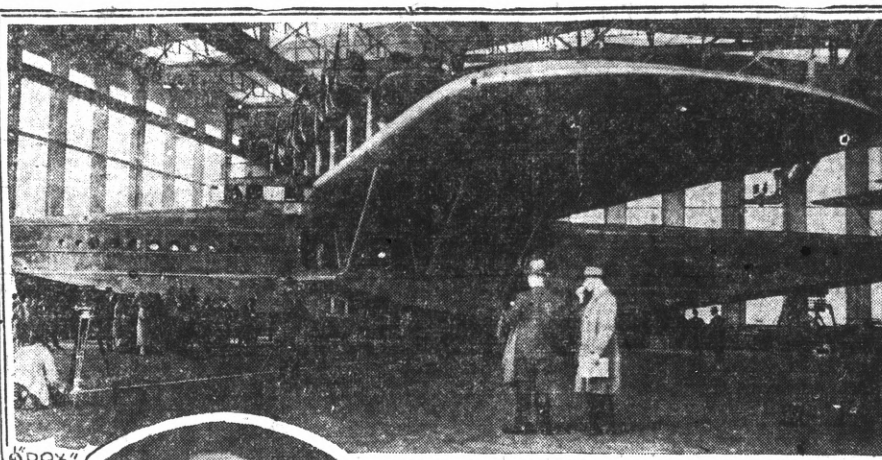

"Don't worry, I'll take care of you," the man consoled.

Miss Rosa Fowler, private secretary of Pantages, said the door connecting her office with that of Pantages was open. She added that she knew of no curtains through which Weise could have looked.

At questioning Pantages was ordered held in the city jail over night. He slept on a cot in cell No. five. The girl was allowed to return to her home.

Pantages was charged with suspicion of having committed an immoral offense.

Mock Marriage Planned For Marathon Dance

The 33rd hour of the El Cerrito marathon dance was passed at midnight last night with seven couples still in the long grind.

At one o'clock this morning the dancers will have passed the mark of 340 hours set at the last dance held at the athletic club.

A program is being planned tonight, featuring the "Shooting of Dan McGrew."

Sunday motion pictures will be taken of the dancers. In order to get the proper lighting effects, the dancers will go out on San Pablo avenue at two o'clock in the afternoon.

A mock marriage is being planned for the motion pictures. Tillio Coppi of Richmond will be the "bridegroom" and Mae Terek of El Cerrito will be the "blushing bride." These two are couple No. 14 in the dance.

It will be a modern dancing marriage, or Rossi promoter of the dance said. All of the participants in the ceremony will dance to the tune of a jazz orchestra.

FIRE FIGHTERS DIRECTED BY RADIO

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 9.—UP—Only the disastrous Rinconda blaze near San Luis Obispo marred an otherwise unusually spotless forest fire record in southern California tonight.

As the fire raged on despite efforts of 250 men, a call for additional volunteers was sent out. Already 25,000 acres of brush, grain and grazing lands lay blackened behind the flames now three days old.

United States forest supervisors were summoned from Santa Barbara today to take charge and they pressed into service portable radio sets to direct the men.

25 MEN TRAPPED BY BIG BLAZE

TACOMA, WASH., Aug. 9.—UP—Fire late today blocked the entrance to a narrow box canyon in Rainier National park where a crew of 25 men took refuge when the Cougar creek fire resisted all efforts to control it and swept steadily forward on a front of many miles.

The men fled from the flames into the rocky ravine and probably will be marooned there for several days. Efforts to drop food, water and blankets from airplanes will be made.

Thirty other men on the same front were forced to flee when the flames at another point along the line destroyed their camp Thursday night and continued roaring through the virgin forest on the slopes of Mt. Rainier doing untold damage.

The Mt. Rainier blaze is the worst in western Washington. It has been out of control since Tuesday.

In eastern Washington weary crews of firefighters had the big Lake Crelan fire under control tonight and fires in the Pend Oreille district were subsiding as a call came for men to battle a new blaze in the Selway National forest.

A crew of 140 fresh men were rushed from Spokane to the scene of the new blaze.

The situation in Oregon and Idaho was about the same as yesterday with most fires under control. Two fires in southern Oregon were the only ones presenting serious aspects in those states.

DAMAGE MOUNTING IN NORTHERN DISTRICTS

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 9.—UP—Damage was mounting into thousands of dollars tonight as fires continued to sweep through timber and brush lands of northern California.

Depredations by "fire bugs" were worrying forestry officials at headquarters here more than all the usual causes for forest fires put together. Agents in the criminal branches of the federal government concentrated their efforts to detect persons responsible for starting approximately 30 fires that resulted in heavy financial losses and peril to lives.

Carelessness of deer hunters was second in contributing reasons for the critical situation. One fire fighter had been killed while fighting a fire started by deer hunters.

The disastrous Badger Creek fire which for a time threatened the town of Hawkinsville near the Klamath and Shasta rivers was declared under control but still required the vigilance of a hundred fire fighters, many deer and cattle had been killed, a $10,000 automobile camp had been destroyed and 2,000 acres of timber had been wiped out.

Protect Your Furniture

A $1.25 to Rid Your Home of Moths May Save You Hundreds of Dollars.

MORTEMOTH KILLS MOTHS

The gas from Mortemoth crystals not only protects your furniture for a long time, but contact with it kills all moths, their eggs and their dangerous larvae in furniture which is already infested.

The proper method of using Mortemoth crystals is to tie them in small sacks, and to place these sacks down in the channel of the piece, as deeply as possible, behind the cushions, so that, upon expansion, the gas will spread and fill the spring units in the back and in the bottom of the piece.

When the sacks are empty, fill them again.

Richmond Man Dies Taking Driver's Test

Stricken by a heart attack while taking the driver's examination at the Richmond police department headquarters yesterday morning, James Luckey, of Willard avenue, died in spite of efforts of the fire department inhalator crew to revive him.

Luckey arrived at the station early yesterday morning and started to answer the questions required by law. He appeared to be in normal condition. In the midst of the examination he collapsed.

He was a laborer and leaves a widow, Mrs. Hazel Luckey. The body is at the Wilson and Kratzer chapel.

GRAF ZEPPELIN WILL LAND TODAY

The Graf Zeppelin rushed in from the darkness of the Atlantic, shortly after midnight, according to its radio messages, setting a surprising speed of about 100 miles an hour.

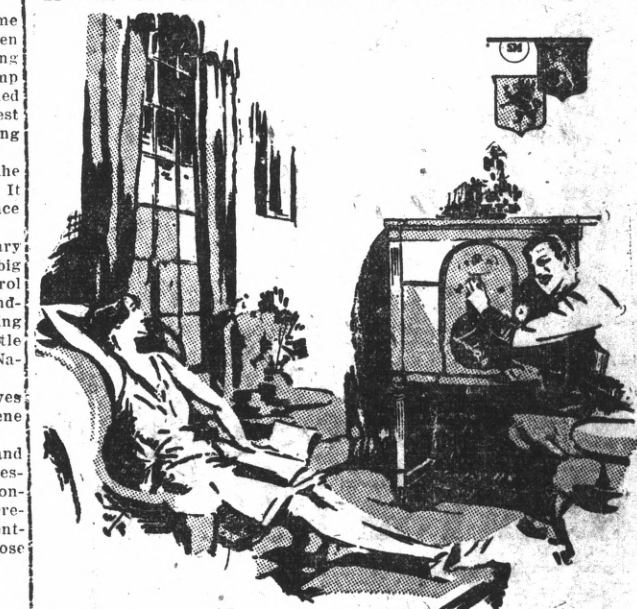

Dr. Hugo Eckener, commander of the craft, apparently had accomplished his desire to set a record that will stand for some time when he informed the American navy department that at 7:05 EST last night that he was passing over the Scilly islands.

At that hour the dirigible had covered 4095 miles on its flight from Lakehurst at the amazing speed of 94.39 miles an hour. The big ship had been in the air 42 hours and 30 minutes when it reached the Scilly Isles and was but 737 miles from the end of its first stage on the flight around the world—Friedrichshafen.
